

Activities Conducted By Department Botany in the Year 2022-23

Rajya Sabha Internship Program

The Rajya Sabha internship program is a platform for students to gain valuable insights into parliamentary proceedings and public policy. Rajya Sabha is hosting two week internship program from November 28, 2023. Among the three selected students from Jawaharlal Nehru Rajkeeya Mahavidyalaya, one of the student pursuing M.Sc. degree in Department of Botany Ms. P. Anthra got the opportunity to attend this prestigious internship program.

Training Program on “Organic Oyster Mushroom Cultivation” Technology

A Five days training program on “Organic Oyster Mushroom Cultivation Technology” was organized by ICAR-KrishiVigyan Kendra from 28th November to 2nd December 2023. A total of eleven M.Sc. I Semester students from Department of Botany, JNRM attended this training program. The students gained practical knowledge about the cultivation method of Oyster mushroom in different substrates like paddy straw and saw dust. They also learnt about the disease and pest management, packaging, processing, value addition and marketing of mushroom. They also prepared different dishes made up of mushroom on the last day of the training program.

National conference on “Innovative Ideas in the Fields of Science, Technology, Social Sciences and Humanities”

A national conference on “Innovative Ideas in the Fields of Science, Technology, Social Sciences and Humanities” in collaboration with the Society of Science, Technology and Humanity, Kalyan, Maharashtra was organized by Department of Botany, JNRM on 23rd November 2023. Around 34 delegates from different regions of mainland India actively participated in the conference.

TALK ON “ATMANIRBHAR BHARAT”

Prof Subhrangshu Sekhar Sarkar, HOD, Department of Business Administration & Director, Teaching Learning Centre, Tezpur University and Coordinator, MBA (Executive) Programme, Tezpur University, Assam delivered a talk on “Atmanirbhar Bharat” at Department of Botany, JNRM on 28th October, 2023. The event was attended by students and staffs of the department.

